You can only register for ibd5 AFTER you have selected a username and password in the on-line reservation system at <http://nmr.chem.ualberta.ca>

I acknowledge that the ibd5 spectrometer is an expensive research instrument which needs to be treated with proper care.

In particular, I am aware that no user is allowed to change probes except under the supervision of the following NMR staff: Mark Miskolzie and Nupur Dabral.

I further agree to use the instrument according to the established reservation rules (available at <http://nmr.chem.ualberta.ca>).
